ORDER:

In the reference 1st read above, the A.P. Paramedical Board, Hyderabad in its 9th meeting held on 06.12.2012 made the following resolutions in respect of conversion of Blood Bank Technician Course in to Diploma in Medical Lab Technology course :-

- 1) Abolish the BBT course with effect from the Academic Year 2013-2014 to avoid hardship to the students in future.
 - 2) The candidates who have passed the Certificate Course in BBT from the Academic year 2007-2008 onwards and desired to seek admission into the DMLT course may be granted remission of one year study of DMLT, by admitting them into 2nd year of DMLT Course.
 - 3) This facility may be provided only for a period of 3 Academic years (i.e., upto 2015-2016) in the Government Para Medical Institutions (i.e. Medical Colleges including Institute of Preventive Medicine & Food Labs, Hyderabad) by sanctioning additional seats in the 2nd year of DMLT Course subject to a maximum of Ten (10) seats every year in each Institute. The candidates who have passed the Certificate Course in BBT from any Government or Recognized Private Para Medical Institute may seek admission in any of the Institutes where this facility is provided.
 - 4) The Government may be requested to issue specific orders on the above lines accordingly.
2. The Government after careful examination hereby approve the above resolution of A.P. Paramedical Board with the following procedure to be adopted :-
- a) Where the Institutions seeking for conversion of the BBT Course to DMLT course on the above lines shall make a representation to the Government.
 - b) The Applicant institution shall be inspected by the District Level Teams interms of G.O.Ms.No.135 HM&FW (J2) Department dated 17.08.2013.
 - c) The Government will examine the inspection report and take necessary action for granting permission for conversion of the said course.
